

It takes a Family — thank you

Dear Cardinal Mooney Family:

It is time to thank you, once again. Your very kind responses to our efforts to keep in touch through this weekly bulletin are deeply appreciated. Two thoughts in that regard:

- We truly wish to listen as much as we wish to speak. Through emails to either or both of us at our addresses below, please let us know if there is anything we are missing that would be helpful for you as we navigate these unusual times together. If there is a message you would like to share with the wider community, please let us know that as well. We want this weekly communication tool to be as beneficial as possible.
- We have heard your suggestion that we measure our messages — particularly to the students and parents — so we don't overburden you with, as the kids say, TMI (too much information). In pursuit of our goal of maintaining adequate communication, we are aware of the danger of adding to stress levels by excessive contacts. We promise to curb our enthusiasm and filter our communication through social media and emails to avoid "system overload." Please be patient as we figure out where the perfect blend of "just enough" exists.

Meanwhile, we are busy preparing for the day that teachers and students will make their triumphant return to Erie Street. To that end, a professional cleaning service, Palumbo's, Inc., is working in tandem with our maintenance crew to do a "deep cleaning" of the building, including sanitizing all the desks and other hard surfaces. Palumbo's also provides our summer cleaning services.

While this is ongoing, it is vital that students understand there is no admittance to any part of the campus without a (very rare) pre-arranged and approved appointment. Be aware the school and grounds are being monitored to prevent any violations. We realize you want everything to return to normal — we like to think you miss us as much as we miss you — but we are very serious about following the guidelines from our diocesan and governmental officials.

Please look over this issue for other important information, including Academic updates, community resources, news about our "reimagined" Auction, a fun (and important) video message from guidance counselor Dena O'Neill and a reflection to help us keep our minds and hearts focused properly even as we "shelter in place."

God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Richard Osborne

We will adapt to preserve tradition

Since Denny Barrett and Don Bucci won the school's first state championships in speech and football, respectively, Cardinal Mooney High School has earned the right to place the words "tradition" and "excellence" firmly in its language.

Following generations have contributed to that legacy, and with each and every achievement earned, some sort of adversity was defeated.

The challenge we face today has changed our world in a very short period of time. Standing in the path of this wave is one of our most important events: the Celebrate Mooney Auction.

In response to the dramatic escalation of the spread of COVID-19 in recent weeks, and to be in compliance with government directives, we have reimagined our Auction into an exclusively online event.

What better way is there to "Celebrate" our school than to come together in a manner that has reflected our history — to not only overcome this challenge, but grow from it.

Our tradition, our excellence, and our commitment to the ideas of Sanctity, Scholarship, and Discipline will remain. As part of that, our Auction will take place on April 25. And with your help, our mission of serving the community through the Gospel values will continue.

We are working to put together virtual opportunities to allow our members and friends to come together from the safety of their own homes. Stay tuned for email updates in your inbox during the coming days. In the meantime visit bidpal.net/mooney to purchase raffle tickets for:

- Louis Vuitton Graceful MM hobo handbag $20.00 (only 250 available)
- Rare Bourbon Basket with a bottle of Pappy Van Winkle '15, Eagle Rare, Blanton's, E.H. Taylor Small Batch $50.00 (only 250 available)
- 50/50 tickets $10.00 each

Our society is filled with uncertainty and anxiety as we continue to provide you and our community with the best-possible resources during this unprecedented time. Your help and support has been and will continue to be critical in making it through this difficult period. We want to reassure you of our ongoing commitment to the community, and promise we will do all we can to continue to serve our members. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

THE TRADITION CONTINUES

A lonely image reflects troubled times

If you saw the national news this week, you saw the somber and lonely figure of Pope Francis standing in the deserted St. Peter's Square. He was reflecting on a passage from St. Mark about the storm at sea. Jesus and the disciples were traveling across the Sea of Galilee when a violent storm arose and threatened to destroy the boat. Jesus was asleep in the stern of the boat and in a panic the disciples cried: "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?" Jesus stood and said to the roaring seas: "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was dead calm.

Pope Francis reflects:

"The storm exposes our vulnerability and uncovers those false and superfluous certainties around which we have constructed our daily schedules, our projects, our habits and priorities. It shows us how we have allowed to become dull and feeble the very things that nourish, sustain and strengthen our lives and our communities. The tempest lays bare all our prepackaged ideas and forgetfulness of what nourishes our people's souls; all those attempts that anesthetize us with ways of thinking and acting that supposedly 'save' us, but instead prove incapable of putting us in touch with our roots and keeping alive the memory of those who have gone before us. We deprive ourselves of the antibodies we need to confront adversity."

Instead, he encouraged us:

"Let us invite Jesus into the boats of our lives. Let us hand over our fears to him so that he can conquer them. Like the disciples, we will experience that with him on board there will be no shipwreck. Because this is God's strength: turning to the good everything that happens to us, even the bad things. He brings serenity into our storms, because with God life never dies."

Academic News for the Week of March 29

1. As we enter the third week of our online schooling, we pray that you are adjusting well to the changes in how we do teaching and learning as the Cardinal Mooney High School community.

- It is important that students and teachers communicate with each other using our @cardinalmooney.com emails.
- Students are required to check into each Google Classroom daily for the classes they are taking during Quarter 4 and complete the assignments. While this is a new way to “go to school,” it is our new normal, it is not optional, and each student must fulfill this responsibility.

2. Will the Governor reopen schools? We do not know. As soon as there is information that answers this, we will communicate it to you. Until then, the online work must be completed by students.

3. EdChoice: The Ohio Department of Education is currently updating information about the program after the legislature voted. Please check the EdChoice page on the Ohio Department of Education website to see the updated information once it is posted about the two EdChoice programs. Mrs. Kalasky will help with this process once the state clarifies the details. Here is the link: <http://education.ohio.gov/Topics/Other-Resources/Scholarships/EdChoice-Scholarship-Program>

- The income-based EdChoice Expansion Program requires parents to submit their portion and give a copy of information to CMHS. The deadline for submission is April 15.
- The new information about the traditional EdChoice program based on the district of residence will be in the new guidance that the state posts. Again, parents should complete their portion and give CMHS the information that the school will need.

4. On Tuesday, March 31, we will open the office for students to pick up books and, if needed, a Chromebook. Here is the plan so we can help everyone stay safe.

- Students should notify their teachers by Monday if they need a book or ChromeBook to access Google Classroom and assignments. We will then be able to put together a packet of materials for the student.
- For the safety of all, we will adhere to social distancing and other guidelines.
N.B. To maintain these restrictions, we cannot allow students to go to their lockers on Tuesday.
- Please come to the main entrance and we will admit students or parents one at a time per the schedules listed below. You may stay in your car until we signal you to come in.
- Students who took psychology during Q3 need to return their books so Q4 students can use them. Include a paper in the book with your name so we know whose book is returned. Return psychology books from 9-11am.
- From Noon-1 pm, we will distribute the psychology and other books as well as ChromeBook.

5. Q4 Schedule Changes must be done by Monday at 3pm in order to be able to arrange for book pick up on Tuesday. A student should email a request to scalco@youngstowndiocese.org. Include his/her full name, the class requesting to drop and the class requesting to add, and the reason for the change request. All requests are subject to approval by administration and not guaranteed.

6. Scheduling: Please review the course selection sheets students reviewed and return to CMHS by April 8. Also, CCP students should remember the deadline to consult with YSU.

7. If you need access to the Internet here are some options that may work for you:
Lifeline is the FCC's program to help make communications services more affordable for low-income consumers. Lifeline provides subscribers a discount on monthly telephone service, broadband Internet access service, or voice-broadband bundled service purchased from participating providers.

Yearbook ad deadline set for March 30

The yearbook staff is selling senior ads for the yearbook. The information about the ad is located on the order form, which is available on the Mooney website.

To access the order form follow the link under news to the order form. Orders are due March 30 but because of the current circumstances we will accept late orders if we know the size to allot for in the ads section.

Please send the ad in via U.S. mail to the school to the attention of Jennifer Policy. Thank you in advance for your support of the yearbook and your senior.
